

Company Details

Australia Vocational Learning Insitute

The Australian Vocational Learning Institute is a Nationally Accredited Registered Training Organisation, delivering Nationally Recognised Qualifications within the Community Service Industry.

We are often referred to as AVLI - Australian Vocational Learning Institute.

For more than 7 years we have maintained our high level of community service based courses. We are proud of our efforts to improve workplaces through building training cultures and learning environments.

We have an extensive client base and proudly count major national charitable organisations, local government and many quality health and community care providers among our satisfied customers. We are committed to maintaining our impeccable track record of assisting unemployed students to gain employment and providing promotion pathways for existing employees within the industry.

Paul Lange

Chief Executive Officer (CEO)

About AVLI

We offer courses designed to enhance your career and your life

AVLI – Australian Vocational Learning Institute, was inspired and founded by people who discovered a short supply of top quality, relevant, flexible aged care and disability training to cater for our ageing population.

Australian Vocational Learning Institute Pty Ltd (RTO 21289) is registered with the Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) as a Registered Training Organisation. Being a Registered Training Organisation means our training programs are nationally recognised and comply with the VET Quality Framework for Registered Training Organisations.

The quality of our training is rigorously monitored and audited to ensure we provide a high standard of quality service.

1 Our Mission

Our mission is to provide our students with exceptional learning solutions that integrate theory, experience and action planning, allowing participants to "learn by doing" through practice and application of new skills to realistic problems.

2 Our Philosophy

Our educational philosophy is founded on ethical conduct and teamwork. To ensure institutional excellence, we continually challenge, test, re-evaluate and raise our standards. As an educational organisation, we have high expectations and believe that our success depends upon the combined capability and contribution of staff, participants and members of our community.

At AVLI importance is placed on

- Quality education
- Open access to education and opportunity for participant success
- Diversity in our staff, participants and creative ideas
- Respect for all of our participants, colleagues and community
- Institutional integrity
- Service to our community

What We Value - "We are a company which keeps its promises."

Integrity: Honesty and fairness are essential to the way we do business and how we interact with people. We are a company which keeps its promises. We do what we say we will do.

Client Satisfaction: We will exceed client expectations through continuous improvement in quality and service.

Our Employees: The diversity and involvement of our people is the foundation of our strength.
Improvement and Innovation: We seek improvement and innovation in every element of our business

Starting a Career in Community Services.

Community Services provide you with job security and excellent career pathways in an Industry where you can make a difference.

Community Services is a growth industry, and persons working within it are gaining more appreciation, acknowledgment and opportunities to advance their career for what they do. Government is assisting in implementing better wages and working conditions.

Workers in the Community Services Sector may work in Aged Care, Disability Support, or in a range of positions with Community based organisations.

If you are seeking a new and rewarding career by gaining formal qualifications or want to update your skills or transition from an existing industry over to Community Services then look no further. The team at the Australia Vocational Learning Institute are certainly here to support you in your endeavours.

When making decision to work within the Community Service industry it is important to be aware of the following:

State regulations apply to the age of a learner who may engage in paid and unpaid work within the Community Services. Learners need to be aware that the age of paid employment in the Community Services industry varies from state to state, and it is advised to check with the state authority the states regulations prior to enrolment.

Legislation requires anyone working in the health and community environment to have undergone a criminal record check. Prior to workplace participation you will be required to undergo a criminal record check.

Code of Conduct

We pride ourselves on making continuing improvements and ensuring a strict code of conduct. We ensure that policies and management practices are adopted which maintain high professional standards in the marketing and delivery of vocational education and training services which safeguard the educational interests and welfare of participants.

We are committed to integrating Access and Equity principles within all our services that we provide to our clients. Our team recognise the rights of clients and/or learners and provide information, advice and support consistent with our Code of Practice.

Name of Chief Executive Officer (CEO): Paul Lange | CEO email address: admin@avli.com.au |

Trading name: Australia Vocational Learning Institute | Stress address: 86 Tope Street, South Melbourne | Postcode: 3205

Postal Address: P O Box 8605, Armadale, 3143 | Telephone: 03 9005 0310 | Toll Free: 1300 36 20 51 |

Website address: www.avli.com.au | ABN: 14 097 452 828